8 a.m.: Community News

- March meeting minutes and treasurer's report approved.
- NBD funds have arrived.
- Gardeners: Herb sale is May 1 and plant sale is May 8 behind College Hill Coffee.
- Forum meetings are on Zoom now. Next one is April 27.
- CHCURC office have moved, across from Hamilton Ave. across from Marty's Hops. CHBA voted and approved to support NBDIP (neighborhood improvement program)—application due early May—parking lot improvement, expand outdoor dinining, street scaping. Hollywood Drive-in will be back in May.

8:15 a.m.: On-going Business

Aaron proposed the booklet ad rate at $50 for 1/2 page, $100 for full page. Members are eligible for free 1/8 page. Queen City Printing will be printing the booklet. Their designer will design the layout. Businesses won't need to design their ad / coupon.

Those present agreed that we should proceed with booklet. The deadline for submitting ads is Friday, April 23. Aaron will send the application.
